Explanatory note regarding the public register

The CMRITO's public register contains information about registrants, some of which is available to the public. The public register allows the public to view certain information about current and past registrants on the CMRITO website. Individuals can search for information about medical radiation and imaging technologists using first or last names, names used in practice, the names of facilities where registrants practise, or by CMRITO registration numbers.

Public register information

This section of the public register shows the following information about a registrant:

- last name
- given name (s)
- name used in practice (if applicable)
- registration number
- registration status
- class of registration
- specialty(ies)
- business address and business telephone number for a registrant's primary and any other places of practice

"Registration status" shows the status of current and past registrants. There are five types of registration status: active, suspended, suspended – failure to pay fees, revoked and resigned.

- Active – the registration status of a current registrant. Only individuals who have “active” status are legally able to practise the profession in Ontario.
- Suspended, suspended for failure to pay fees, or revoked – the registration status of a person whose certificate of registration is suspended, suspended because they failed to pay their fees or is revoked respectively. These individuals are no longer registrants and cannot practise the profession in Ontario.
- Resigned – the registration status of a person who has resigned. This person is no longer a registrant and cannot practice the profession in Ontario.

A registrant’s registration history prior to September 1, 2013 may also be indicated but only if the information was available to the CMRITO as of September 1, 2013.

This section contains any terms, conditions and limitations that are in effect on a certificate of registration. Every CMRITO registrant has a term, condition and limitation on their certificate of registration that they shall practice only in the areas of medical radiation and imaging technology in which they are educated and experienced.

When information is not available

There are limited circumstances under which the above information about a registrant may not be available on the public register. For example, information may not be available on the public register if the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that disclosure of the information may jeopardize the safety of an individual.

Please contact the CMRITO if you have questions about the public register. Please also see the Terms and Conditions of Use.

Please note that the CMRITO was known as the CMRTO prior to January 1, 2020 and therefore some information on register, particularly in the 'Special Notices' and 'Findings' sections will reflect the name of the organization at the time the information was posted.
